CITY-LEVEL RESULTS THAT MAYORS CAN COUNT ON

In New Orleans, OHUB co-led the $74.5M H2theFuture clean-energy coalition, helping the region attract $32B in new investment and create 4,000+ jobs.

Through OHUB's entrepreneurial and investment programs, the region trained 100+ founders (65% women-led), deployed $425K in non-dilutive capital, and catalyzed more than $500K in follow-on investment—strengthening the local pipeline of high-growth entrepreneurs.

Your city can activate the same proven model to accelerate innovation, drive job creation, expand small-business growth, and increase workforce mobility.

THE OHUB DIFFERENCE

Designed for Impact from Day One

We build systems—not programs—that embed ownership, access, and long-term participation into every layer of a city's innovation infrastructure.

Talent, Capital & Policy in One System

A unified model that aligns workforce upskilling, entrepreneurship, investment pathways, and public-sector strategy to drive measurable economic mobility.

National Model, Local Fit

Proven models refined across multiple markets, tailored with city partners to fit local priorities, assets, and economic development goals.

From Fragmented Efforts to a Connected System

Moves cities beyond siloed initiatives to a cohesive ecosystem that compounds talent development, startup creation, and inclusive growth.
